Dearest Sisters in Christ,

As intercessors we know full well how the Lord richly fills our Holy Hours. Imagine what He might have in His Heart for a gathering of Seven Sisters for three whole days! My heartfelt invitation joins Fr. Johnson's to come away for a while and join scores of other Seven Sisters for prayerful fellowship, inspirational talks, and together deepening our resolve to pray united for the sanctity of priests.

I'm also happy that you will be able to meet the priest whose generous and joyful example of living out his priestly life sparked the international movement of the Seven Sisters Apostolate.

Let us see what God will do in our time together!

United in prayer and mission,

Janette Howe
Foundress

Dear Sisters,

God has granted amazing growth to this apostolate to lift up our priests in prayer before the Eucharistic Lord. It is time for us to gather as a spiritual family and pray together! This pilgrimage will also be a wonderful opportunity for us to grow spiritually and deepen our understanding of the special charism that God has granted to this apostolate. We will have beautiful moments of prayer and wonderful speakers to enlighten us as we visit the holy sites around our nation's capital.

This three-day conference would be an opportunity for the members of your Seven Sisters group to be together but any individual member is welcome as we all form one great spiritual family. You may also invite your priest to join us—but even if he can't come, we will remember him in prayer! Spouses are also welcome.

Join us in giving thanks to God for the privilege of being a member of this apostolate and for all the blessings He so abundantly bestows upon us who stay close to His Merciful Heart!

Fr. Joseph Johnson
Apostolate Chaplain
